

THE METHODIST CHURCH BANBURY CIRCUIT NEWSLETTER JULY/AUGUST 2011

Retreating to Advance

Rev Rob Anning, Superintendent Minister, writes:

For the second year in succession, we have caught a glimpse of Summer in April and May. But as I write this article, it is wet and windy, and I am hoping we have more than a glimpse of Summer in the months of July and August.

Yet, as we look around us, it is impossible to avoid the effects of Spring and early Summer on our world. The whole of creation seems to be calling to us. Perhaps we can grasp what the writer of Isaiah meant in Isaiah 55 verse 12: "And all the trees of the field shall clap their hands". In her own way, Nature is drawing our attention to her renewal.

If you will excuse the pun, we also should be taking a leaf out of her book. Now is the time we should be planning to put some time aside in the months ahead for our own personal renewal. That time might be a holiday or short break, or a change in pace or routine (as good as a rest?), or simply taking days out. Whatever method you choose, personal renewal is important, for it refreshes us and gives us the energy and motivation to be able to praise and serve God in a revitalised way.

Jesus was someone who was keen on short breaks. The gospels are full of Jesus retreating to advance. He regularly goes up a hillside, strolls by the lakeside, gets away from the crowd, and away from the usual routine. There he prays, relaxes and rests. There he reflects on the past and considers the future, and returns to his ministry refreshed with a different outlook which could not be found in the rush of his days.

Retreating to advance is a good philosophy. Making space to look at our lives, to look at the world, to re-consider our situation, is always a good thing to do. Sometimes we get so involved in our lives and activities that we can't see the wood for the trees. By taking a step back, we can see the bigger picture and more easily find where our place should be within it.

So over the next few months, I urge you all to find a way to retreat to advance. Give yourself some time. Take a little trip to somewhere you have been promising yourself for a while, even if it is only a bus ride or train journey for a day out. Go for a picnic in the park. Do something different. I'm certain you will discover the benefits of retreating to advance.

From September we will be called CAMEO---Come and Meet Each Other. We will still meet on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday afternoons each month except July and August at Marlborough Road at 2.30 pm and welcome Men and Women of any age to share a varied programme. Our first meeting of the new session is on September 14th when Rev Rob Anning is taking a communion service.

The money we raise will still go to the Methodist Church Fund for World Mission.

COME AND MEET US!!!

CHURCH BLOOPERS

1. The Associate Minister unveiled the church's new tithing campaign slogan last Sunday, "I upped my pledge - up yours."
2. Eight new choir robes are currently needed, due to the addition of several new members and to the deterioration of some older ones,
3. The senior choir invites any member of the congregation who enjoys sinning to join the choir.
4. The Rev, Merriwether spoke briefly, much to the delight of the audience.
5. The concert held in the Fellowship Hall was a great success. Special thanks are due to the minister's daughter, who laboured the whole evening at the piano, which as usual fell upon her.
